COTSWOLD COMPANY'S CURE FOR CHILDREN'S BEDTIME BLUES!

Hector & Queen Launches New Children's Furniture Range

Fairford, Gloucestershire, 05 Sept 2012. Leading British designers and manufacturers, Hector & Queen Ltd, have launched their new range of fun, funky and totally unique children's handcrafted bedroom furniture.

The new range, which covers bunk beds, wardrobes and drawers and which is all hand designed from the finest quality timber, is designed to appeal to children's boundless imagination with children able to climb, hide, play and have fun with the furniture within a safe, secure environment.

"Creating my collection, I wanted to capture the wonderful sense of joy, magic and excitement that for me sums up childhood," says Bettina Harvey, founder and creator of Hector & Queen. "Our Treehouse Bunk Bed is a lovely example – an exciting, fresh and stylish design which is above all about having fun. A child's bedroom is more than a place to sleep but an environment in which your child can dream with open eyes. Hector & Queen looks forward to making this a reality for thousands of children."

Nestled in the heart of the Cotswolds, Hector & Queen create furniture using skilled craftsmen, traditional methods and only the finest quality FSC certified timbers. Each piece is finished to the highest possible standard to create inspirational furniture, guaranteed to capture the imagination of children and parents alike.

With their award winning range of exciting, retro print bedlinen and sleepwear to complete the look, Hector & Queen offers everyone the chance to enjoy a bedroom which becomes a place where imaginations are set free and children have the space to grow, play, and feel safe (as well as sleep!). As a sister company of Factory Furniture Ltd, Hector & Queen has over 25 years experience in furniture design and manufacturing.
