

PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COTSWOLD COMPANY SHORTLISTED FOR PRESTIGIOUS AWARD

Local Cotswold company, Hector & Queen has been shortlisted by the highly esteemed Junior Magazine for “best furniture collection” category for 2013.

“To be shortlisted for this award is not only a huge achievement in having launched just eight months ago, but more importantly, it’s confirmation that quality and craftsmanship is very much achievable locally and should not be compromised. We’re really excited to learn who the winners are in Junior's July issue!", said Bettina Harvey founder of Hector & Queen.

Junior is a monthly family lifestyle magazine focusing on informative features, including expert child development, educational and health advice as well as children's fashion, inspirational interiors and child-travel suggestions. The Junior Design Awards provide recognition that your product is a leader in its category, demonstrating the best innovations and most ground breaking and iconic design for discerning modern parents. 2012 winners include Paul Smith, Stella McCartney, Selfridges, Cosatto and Claridges

Similarly, Hector & Queen offer a very unique range of handcrafted children's bedroom furniture, including Treasure Chest of Drawers, Log Cabin Wardrobe and Tree House Bunk Bed offering parents and children alike a fresh and stylish design which is timeless, practical and offers hours of fun. To complete the look, Hector & Queen also offer an award winning range of retro and vintage bed wear not only making bedtime more fun but where children enjoy a bedroom which becomes a place where there are adventures in the daytime and sweeter dreams at night!

For further information please visit www.hectorandqueen.co.uk

E: info@hectorandqueen.co.uk

T: 01285 800085